

i feel that nj's law re: do not call in concerning telemarketers is a good one. it should not be made any different. i do feel for telemarketers since i have known people who did that; however, it is very disturbing when you are at home trying to do a number of things or even trying to relax after work, to have someone interrupting a number of times. i hope that it remains as it is right now.